

April Events of Note

ENTERTAINMENT TO QUENCH YOUR SPRING FEVER

BY LORI HEISS

AND THE WINNER IS...

Country music's biggest night will be broadcast live from Las Vegas, when Luke Bryan and Dierks Bentley return to host the 52nd Annual Academy of Country Music Awards—with Dierks potentially doing double duty as a winner with three nominations on the night. Keith Urban is leading the pack with seven this year, with Miranda Lambert and Maren Morris hot on his heels with six noms each. We'll be watching for favorite and 16-time ACM award winner Tim McGraw to take home a gong for one of his five nominations including Song of the Year and Video of the Year. With all the pre-show red carpet action live streaming on Twitter, you'll want to be ready early so you don't miss the fashion hits—and misses!

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

The legendary Willie Nelson will be gracing the stage at the Whitewater Amphitheatre with his Family band for two nights this April. Continuing his nationwide tour, you can expect an evening to remember with the man himself performing all his greatest hits and a few iconic covers to boot. Former Austinite and CMA award-winning artist Kacey Musgraves will join Willie as his special guest. Friday April 21st and Saturday April 22nd at 7pm. Tickets from $59.12 include a copy of his forthcoming album. whitewaterrocks.com

ART ATTACK

The Arts Fest returns in a new location alongside the Blanco River in Wimberley. The two-day festival will be a feast for the senses, with over 100 artists showcasing their work, food trucks, beer & wine and picnic fare available on site and live music throughout the day. Add in a Vintage Car show and an animal adoption group taking part, there really is something for everyone. With cabins on site you can make a weekend of it, or just go for the day. Saturday April 22nd, 10am to 6pm, Sunday April 23rd, 11am to 5pm. Free admission. wimberleyartsfest.com

FIESTA FEVER

Over 100 years ago, Fiesta San Antonio began as a way to honor the heroes of battles of the Alamo and San Jacinto. This event has grown to include over 100 events spanning 11 days as a celebration of San Antonio's diverse culture and rich heritage. Explore the city and enjoy music, great food, colorful parades...and lots of confetti! Over half of the events are free, and the ticketed events help support local causes. Highlights include the Fiesta Carnival, Battle of Flowers Parade, Oyster Bake. April 20th to 30th, various locations in San Antonio. fiesta-sa.org

HOP TO IT

Hop on over to Flatrock Park in Kerrville for the annual EasterFest & Cookoff on April 15th. The festivities kick off at 10am with Colors presented by the Hill Country Honor Guard, followed by an Easter Egg Hunt for the little ones in the afternoon. Plan to spend the day browsing, shopping or checking out the car & bike show, eating & drinking and listening to live music while enjoying games & rides in a fairground atmosphere. The highlight of the day will be a Chili & BBQ Cookoff including entries for salsa, ribs, brisket and chili—no pre-registration needed, so just turn up if you think you've got what it takes to win! Saturday April 15th, 10am to 5pm. Free admission. kerrvilletx.com

Photo Credits: Easter basket: Thinkstock. All other images courtesy photos